Tom Killion Speaks to Club – Tom Corcoran introduced our speaker of last Thursday. Tom Killion is a member of the House of Representatives in Harrisburg. Tom's District is the 168th covering western Delaware County and includes Westtown Township in Chester County. He serves as the Republican Party whip in the General Assembly. Representative Killion gave us a general review of political business in the House during the past year. He is an articulate speaker who held the audience in his hands on Thursday night. He said that the Pennsylvania House is not divided specifically on party politics but rather regional divisions. He is hard at work trying to resolve the serious problems related to medical malpractice insurance and the flight of doctors out of Pennsylvania.
