Program on Thursday, November 19 – Your editor and Travis were not present for this meeting that introduced mentoring to our membership. Travis received the following e-mail from one of the speakers, Audrey Smith. “Sorry we missed meeting you at the meeting on Thursday and wanted to thank you for letting us come and present to your Club. I’m not sure if we got anyone interested in Mentoring, but if you should hear of anyone, they can certainly go to our web site which is www.ccfutures.org or they can contact me at asmith@ccfutures.org. I left some mentor brochures with Jeff Penfil and also my card, as did our Program’s Director, Kathy McLaughlin. If there is any potential for ‘sponsoring’ from the Rotary Club, that would also be very welcome. Thanks again for the opportunity to speak at your meeting. Have a great Thanksgiving.”

Speaker on Thursday, December 3 – Brendon Johnson, our ambassadorial scholar, will speak to us about his recent activities in Syria. Let’s give Brendon a very cordial welcome.

Club Attendance – District 7450 in its latest newsletter reports that We-Go had the second best attendance in the District. We-Go had 89%, and Kennett had 90%!!

Membership Recruitment – Give the gift of Rotary this holiday season. Invite a friend, family member, neighbor or client to a WeGo meeting and change their life forever.
