Board Meeting – The 2008-09 Board will meet on Wednesday, July 9th at the Senior Center in West Chester at 7:30 a.m. President Mark indicates that he wishes to review the itinerary for the first meeting of his Rotary year to be conducted on Thursday, July 10th.

First Club Meeting – The meeting on Thursday the 10th will be a Club Assembly. Come to the meeting prepared to contribute to those activities Mark and the Board wish to focus upon during 2008-2009.

Nite Out with the Phillies – This is a reminder.. On Wednesday night, August 6th the Phillies will host the Florida Marlins at Citizens Bank Park. The seats for the game are in Section 233 along the left field foul line. Call Mark Rudiger for tickets; price is $27 per seat. Deadline for this event is July 17th!

New Board and Officers Sworn In at President's Dinner on Thursday, June 26th – Past District Governor of 7450 Russ de Furia conducted the induction ceremony. Those members inducted included Mark Rudiger (President), Leo Gibbons (President Elect), Reese Davis (Secretary), Bob Thomas (Treasurer), Larry Whitaker (Past President), Ed Olsavicky (Sergeant at Arms) and the following Directors: Jeff Penfil, Seth Birch and John Young. The President's pin was passed from Larry to Mark. Larry Whitaker received from the Club the Past President's pin and a gavel plaque. The dinner food was marvelous and the dinner conversation was especially delightful. We thank Ginny Ingram for arranging the dinner site at the Radley Run Country Club.

Dues for Rotary Year 2008-2009 – On May 9th 2008 the Board of Directors approved the proposal to assess dues for the coming Rotary Year at $165 as a single payment and for $85 in semi-annual payments.

Humor Department – A college professor asked a student in his government class: "What's the difference between the government and the mafia?" The student answered: "One of them is organized."
